

Job Title: Construction/Project Manager

Job Description

We are currently looking for a Construction Manager to join our growing team. Duties include contract management, site inspection, owner's representative services, construction management, project documentation, budget and schedule control, proposal writing, and client relations.

Responsibilities

This position will be responsible for the oversight of water, wastewater, utility, heavy civil and for building projects and management of the overall job scope, progress, budget, and quality of each project. Construction Managers will also be responsible for the inspection of construction work for contract compliance, preparing and presenting proposals to clients, attending interviews, conferences and business networking activities, project documentation, and recommending remediation measures as necessary. Other duties may be assigned.

Minimum Qualifications

- € Graduation from a college or university with a Bachelor's degree, preferably in Construction Management or Civil Engineering
- € 3–5 years of experience in construction with an emphasis in Construction Management and Project Administration
- € Field engineering and layout knowledge
- € Considerable knowledge of construction principles and practices related to water, wastewater, pipeline, building and road/bridge construction
- € Ability to ensure compliance with, and follow standard safety practices and procedures common to construction work
- € Ability to compile data and statistics and evaluate and generate reports
- € Ability to prepare budgets, proposals, and manage job costs
- € Ability to prepare cost estimates
- € Ability to effectively communicate using both oral and written communication
- € Ability to establish and maintain effective working relationships with employees, other agencies, clients and the public

Application Process

Please send updated cover letters and resumes to cassidy.hill@ditescoservices.com.

About Ditesco

Ditesco is a full-service program, project, and construction management firm in Fort Collins, Colorado. Our team provides these services for a wide variety of projects including water and wastewater treatment facilities, transportation infrastructure, utilities, dams, and vertical building construction. We are a trusted company that has many long-term relationships with Northern Colorado municipalities and various private entities. Ditesco strongly believes that the success of a business stems from the happiness and dedication of its employees, and sees each person's role as vital to the company. We offer a competitive salary based on applicant qualifications, opportunities for growth, and additional benefits. Further information will be provided during the interview process.